When the temperature is such as to correspond with the "critical point" for that gas under the particular pressure to which it is subjected in the brilliant prison-house, it liquefies and becomes visible as a bubble.

Advertising The West

At the present period every newspaper throughout the continent is devoting considerable space towards putting forth plainly and briefly the possibilities and advantages that lay in waiting in the Great North-West and are offering to the outside world. Even people and periodicals across the sea are advocating agency schemes and other devices whereby new and desirable people may be reached and influenced to come in and join the great Dominion, which, in time promises to be the wealthiest country in the world.

Today hundreds of our well-to-do farmers and capitalists who came to this country years ago, and have seen and experienced the possibilities of the West, are visiting the home land where they can expatiate upon what can be accomplished upon our vast acreage; our men and other platform speakers are occupying platforms abroad in the interests of the West, and the government are trying to devise means whereby our resources can be represented to the outside world.

It is to the advantage of every settler of the North-West provinces to encourage and support every effort made in the formation and establishment of such an institution as a publicity bureau. Many colonial periodicals are today advocating such a scheme, and if it can be brought to bear it will mean the foremost and best step ever taken towards advertising our different resources. If a publicity bureau were established in each of the leading towns of the West, each could send out far and wide short and descriptive letters, which could be easily perused and understood and be instrumental in bringing about the desired results.

Refused to Help

April Rod And Gun

The manifold delights of the rod and gun, the season for which is now so near at hand, finds some able exponents in the early number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Woodstock, Ont. The immense advantages of Algonquin Park for fishing vacations, and descriptions of some of its many wonderful lakes, is given prominently in a beautifully illustrated article, the writer having had the privilege of accompanying the hardy Rangers on some of their rounds. The veteran angler, Mr. G. W. Young, gives an account of some new waters along the line of the new Transcontinental in Northern Quebec and many a fisherman will hope that during the coming summer he may possibly repeat Mr. Young's delightful experiences. The wanderings of a fishing party lost in the Rockies are well told by Mr. E. M. Allworth, the story illustrating the difference between fishing in the north and in the west. Mr. Allworth and his party had to walk home from the mountains to their prairie town. A defence of the catfish will be read with interest. Two good bear stories, one of duck hunting, a tale of a good dog and game bird hunting by motor car add to the variety and give increased interest to an excellent number. Not merely no fisherman but no sportsman should be without this bright, informative companionship.

NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Annual General Meeting of the Alberta Coal & Coke Company, Limited, Non-Residential Liability, will be held in the Windsor Hotel, in the Town of Lundbreck, Province of Alberta, Canada, on Monday, the Second day of May, 1910, at the hour of Three o'clock p.m.; for the purpose of receiving and considering the accounts and balance sheet, and the reports of the Directors and Auditors and for the election of Directors, as and for such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting.

Dated this 16th day of April, 1910.
By Order,
MINNIE LIEBRECHT,
Secretary.

Very heavy freight has passed over the Crow's Nest line the past few days.

Poet May Be Freed

St. Paul, April 16.—Partly as the result of activity in his behalf by editors of New York magazines, who have accepted his poems, it seems likely that the young Englishman known as "John Carter," (his true name is unknown), will be released from the Minnesota penitentiary. One of the citizens here who is interested in the case said after a conference with a member of the board of pardons, that he felt sure that action in favor of the poet's freedom would be taken when the board meets. He is serving a ten year sentence for stealing twenty-four dollars.

New York, April 16.—Robert Underwood Johnson, editor of the Century Magazine, speaking of John Carter said:

"The young man has written several letters to me and I voluntarily wrote a letter to the state board of pardons of Minnesota, asking for a remission of his sentence. In none of his communications was there a word of blame or a plea for me to intercede for him. He has learned his lesson and his poems will place him in the world as a better man."

In the cell Carter penned a poem which attracted attention under the title of "Ballads of Misery and Iron," the verses of which read:

Haggard face and trembling knees,
Eyes that shine with a weakening haze,
Lips that mutter their blasphemies,
Murderous hearts that darkly wait.

These were they who were men of late,
Fit to hold a plow or a sword;
If a prayer this wall will penetrate
Have pity on these, my comrades, Lord.

Poets sing of life at the Lee,
In tender verses and delicate;
Of tears and manifold agonies,
Little they know of what they prize.

Out of this silent passionate,
Sounds a deeper, a wilder cry;
If song be heard through the narrow gate,
Have pity on them, my comrades, Lord.

The following is an abstract from another poem:

But the lamps slight, and the clear proud song,
Shall reach to the throne of God ere long;
The night must pass and a strange new dawn
Burnt upon field, and copse and lawn.
For out of the warp of shame and tears,
I weave the joy of the coming years.

Word was received by us this week from Jim Hawley, who left Frank on a southern trip about a fortnight ago. He was then at Sand Point, Idaho, and intended continuing on to Los Angeles, California, where he expects to secure a few pointers from the Jeffries-Johnson fight on July 4th. He will likely return to Alberta in the fall, or early in 1911.

To The Comet

Mysterious traveller of the skies,
That to the searching glass appear'st
A way of light among the stars,
Where hast thou been these many years?

Thou graybeard there who totters by —Perchance he saw thee, when a lad,
Art thou a harbinger of war?
Dost come a portent good or bad?

How long upon thy lonely way
Hast thou been journeying? Was the earth
A formless waste in darkness gift,
And void, when thou didst have thy birth?

Canst tell us aught of heavenly things?
Is there a home beyond the stars?
Didst hear the choir of angels sing
When Christ was born? Have Venus, Mars,

And distant Neptune life and love
And joy and sorrow, dost thou know?
Dost God direct thy no less course
As centuries come and ages go?

Perhaps, when thou dost come again
The reign of peace will here prevail;
Mayhap beneath the light of truth
The powers of darkness then shall fall.

Man's inhumanity to man,
His petty pride and soulless greed,
Shall yield contrite submission to
The precepts of a kinder creed.

Mayst thou of good as omen be,
For man portend a better day,
When from this earth injustice,
Wrong,
And sordid strife shall pass away.

—W. R. Lee.

The Booster

There are many kinds of fellows that are hanging round the earth,
Some claiming to be noble born, while some own humble birth;
But there's a man—The Booster—who stands without a peer,
For he never let us a failure and he never owned a fear.

He views his opportunities with a calm and steady gaze,
The present, past and future he accurately surveys;
Then with scaled courage and an athletic zeal,
In the path of push and progress he's as staunch and true as steel.

This old world needs the Booster, and is glad he's come to stay;
He's come to show the doubter there's a broad and cheerful way;
He's come to tint the cloud lands till they shine with gorgeous hue,
And laugh to scorn the pessimist, and the fellow with the blues;
He's here to boost and build, that's good, the evil to forget;
He's here to work, not worry—to fight, perhaps, not flee;
And when his labor's ended, of him
it will be true,
He bulled like his fathers—far better than he knew."

Many Killed By Slide in Quebec.

Montreal, April 18.—A report reached the city this afternoon that a landslide has occurred at Kakouche, on the construction line of the National Transcontinental railway, and that twenty-five lives had been lost. The scene of the disaster is one hundred miles northwest of Quebec, the only communication being by means of a private telephone line, which was apparently put out of order by the landslide and construction trains, but from what can be learned a small landslide occurred yesterday evening. It covered the track, and a gang of men were sent to remove it. It was while they engaged that a second slide occurred, burying a large number of men. The report is that 28 perished. The dead include two Englishmen, three French Canadians and twenty Italians.

O heart, hear thou the summons,
Put every grief away;
When all the motley masques of
Are laid upon a day.
Alack that any mortal
Should lose the gladness being
Into the choir for that sounds

A Bad Condition of Liver and Stomach

Chronic indigestion and bowel trouble which is overcome quickly by Dr. CHASE'S KIDNEY AND LIVER PILLS.

To the person with liver and stomach troubles everything looks blue and life is scarcely worth living.

How different the folk even after the first dose of Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills. There is no treatment obtainable, which so quickly and thoroughly awakens a sluggish liver and sets the bowels in healthful and regular action.

There is no question that this condition is the real cause of trouble and that any medicine which fails short of regulating these organs can at most only afford temporary relief.

What, then, languid feelings after meals, when the process of digestion is going on. What annoyance from belching wind, pressure of gas on the heart and consequent smothering sensations. What a miserable depressing feeling comes over mind and body.

And yet how easy it is to change all this by the use of this medicine of well-known and decidedly remarkable value. You are not making any experiment when you use Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills for liver, stomach and bowel disorders. You can be sure before you use them that the results will be satisfactory. You will not wonder then why some people are so enthusiastic when they talk about Dr. Chase's Medicine.

Mrs. James Lawrence, West L'Ardoire, C. B., writes: "I have great confidence in Dr. Chase's medicine, and believe that Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills saved my life. I was a great sufferer from chronic dyspepsia and utterly unable to do anything. Two boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills cured me and I have recommended them to many people."

"My husband was cured of liver complaint by using these pills and we would not think of being without them in the house."

GEORGE P. REMINISCENT.

Minister of Railways Tells of Early Days in Ottawa.

One of several interesting articles in the forthright number of the Ottawa Free Press was a column of reminiscences by Hon. George P. Ure, sometime temporary editor and political reporter of that newspaper.

The portion of the reminiscences of the minister of Railways has particular value as a sidelight on the progress of an energetic man who, since 1882, Mr. Graham relates how, a green country lad, he went up to the Cabinet office in the Senate Block to get news for his paper concerning the swearing-in of some new Cabinet Ministers. He writes: "At that time I was able to own a horse or two, and enjoyed the comforts of a coon coat, a fur cap and driving mittens hanging out of the coat pocket, as green as the grass in the park."

"The explanation of the whole thing given me were real chunks of joy and will never be forgotten. The Press had a good item, and the official of the Eastern Block at the time entertained no suspicion that they were furnishing the material."

We wouldn't wonder if some of the same officials are still there, and as they stand with bated breath and profess how to allow Mr. Graham and other Ministers to pass, they probably do not remember the trepidation they sought to instill into the breast of a green young newspaperman twenty years ago.

Roblin's Opponent.

When Hon. C. J. Meikle, the leader of the Opposition to the Manitoba House, was elevated to the Bench last fall, Tobias Crawford Norris, member for Lansdowne, was considered by some a doubtful experiment at the time, but Mr. Norris has taken hold of the meagre Opposition with such vigour and energy this session, and has taken it so hard higher and lower, that there are no longer any doubting Thomases in the ranks of the party.

Like the majority of the Manitoba members, Mr. Norris claims Ontario as his home, and was at Brampton, Sept. 6, 1881. He migrated westward when a young man and has made his mark in his adopted province. He homesteaded and farmed for many years. Later he went into the bootlegging business, and the present is considered the best auctioneer in the province.

He first essayed politics in 1896, when he was elected to the Legislature for Lansdowne. He was again returned in 1899, but was defeated in 1903. He stood again in 1907, when he carried the seat by a hundred majority.

Of Irish descent, he has all of the fluent tongue and the quick wit which are credited to natives of the Emerald Isle. He is a pleasing, yet forcible, speaker, and, while not bitter, is a hard hitter, as the members of the Roblin Government are discovering this session.

Another for Hamilton. The supplementary estimates frequently contain some curious items and those for the current fiscal year and those brought down by Mr. Fielding, make an appropriation of $1,740 "to provide for the expenditure incurred in the removal of an insane Indian from Moose Factory to the Hamilton Asylum, and his maintenance there to March 31." It costs that much to bring an insane Indian all that distance, goodness only knows what it would have cost to bring a sane one. The item, however, will be an opportunity to some irrepressible Toronto member to ask the Government why it was deemed necessary to add to the ordinary population of Hamilton in this way.

A Laura Secord Museum. At a meeting the other day, a resolution was passed asking the Federal and Dominion Governments to lend financial aid to build a Laura Secord memorial hall at Quinsamun, near the Women's Institute of Quinsamun, advocating the proposal. They undertake to collect relics and documents of the early history of this district to form a museum.

Ads For Canada.

Canada is getting more and more in the limelight in Great Britain. The first of this month The Aberdeen Free Press issued a special Canadian number containing numerous well-written and appreciative articles on the Dominion and its provinces. Ontario is highly recommended as a land for Scottish farmers.

Dear Money. Mrs. Ambrose Hays, the American wife of the well-known English novelist, is as celebrated as her husband for her money.

At a dinner in New York during her American visit, the young lady expressed her disapproval of matrimony.

"Never marry for money," she said. "You can borrow money."

It was her birthday, and the loving little wife moved her low chair close to her husband's arm. He was reading. She placed her dear little hand softly towards his coat-collar. He felt nice all over. He certainly expected a "Hubble" and she.

"What, my dear?"

"Were you, my love?"

"I was just thinking how nicely this bit of clothing you are now would work into a rag carpet."

Take out the bottom drawer of a bureau to clean under it.

NEW STRENGTH IN THE SPRING

Nature Needs Aid in Making New Health-Giving Blood

In the spring the system needs toning up. In the spring to be healthy and strong you must have new blood, just as the trees must have new sap.

Nature demands it and without this new blood you will feel weak and languid. You may have twinges of rheumatism or the sharp stabbing pains of indigestion and a variable appetite.

Any of these are signs that the blood is out of order—that the indoor life of winter has told upon you. What is needed to put you right is a tonic, and in all the world there is no tonic can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

These Pills actually make new, rich, red blood—your greatest need in spring. This new blood drives out, cleans, clears the skin and makes weak, easily tired men and women and children, bright, active and strong.

Miss M. Dugan, Lower Cove, N.S., says: "I believe I owe my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My blood seemed to have turned to water. I was pale as a sheet, I suffered from headaches, and floated in a daze. I was constantly before my eyes. As the trouble grew, I suffered from nervousness, and it was feared that dropsy had set in and that my case was hopeless. I took this new blood tonic and attended to it, and notwithstanding I kept working, I was cured."

Write for all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Wishing Too Much. When Wilberforce was a candidate for Hull his sister offered a new gown to the wives of all the freemen who would vote for him.

"Miss Wilberforce for ever!" shouted the enthusiastic crowd when she took the announcement.

"Oh, no gentlemen," she replied smiling. "It is very good of you, but I wish to be 'Miss Wilberforce for ever'—M. A. P."

HEALTHY CHILDREN

Psychine Made Her A Robust Child

It is not necessary for us to speak any words of our own, for the facts given below are strong enough to convince the most skeptical.

When Little was about 2 years of age, she had reached a very healthy condition. Her mother, who had been told that the child could not be cured, had been told that the child could not be cured.

Remember the Name!

It's easy to get what you don't want in this world—coughs, colds, sore throat, asthma, for instance. It's easier still to get the remedy you don't want unless you remember Shiloh's Cure.

Then you're safe, then you have the genuine. For 40 years Shiloh's Cure has been the most successful throat, bronchial and lung remedy in the market. Scores of imitations have arisen, are arising, will arise—trading on our reputation. Shiloh's Cure outvalues its imitations as the genuine always does the sham—but delay, the risk, the harm of a substitute may be obviated now and always if you'll just remember the name, and see that you get—

Shiloh's Cure

A FAMILY FRIEND FOR FORTY YEARS

How It Happens. Mr. Stubb—"Man up in the extreme end of Alaska tried to his wife every mail."

Mr. Stubb—"My! What an affectionate husband!"

Mr. Stubb—"I don't know. There is only one mail a year up there."

An Error in Team Work. Edith, aged 6, had just been informed that twin boys had been added to the family.

Edith's funny, she mused, "Ethel and I both played for a baby brother, but we thought it was the same one."

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, Etc.

Up and Down—2 a.m. Doctor (answering bell through the tube)—Well, well!

Cataract Cannot Be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Cataract is a blood or general disease. Minard's Liniment Cures Cataract.

Not the Same. "How often have I told you that I won't have tobacco smoking in the house?"

"Tain't tobacco it's—one o' them things you bought me?"—N. Y. Telegram.

Artificial Marble. The Italians have devised a method of manufacturing artificial marble, Catania, the centre of the industry, is overflooded by the great volcano Etna, and this mountain has furnished part of the material employed.

As to Jack. Nat—"Jack and I have made up our quarrel. We're good friends again."

Conservation. Stranger (in Dearborn)—You people here don't clean the snow off your sidewalks very well, do you?

The bazaar given by the ladies of the Anglican church last night was a decided success. Some of the finest goods fetched prices which made the young men's pockets stop their flapping. The refreshment tables were luscious dainty and received full patronage. The fancy stalls were also kept busy, and all round the affair was a creditable one to the ladies in charge. Mr. Clark very kindly contributed to the affair and gave a moving picture show at the close of the sale.

Diarrhoea should be cured with out loss of time and by a medicine which like Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy not only cures promptly but produces no unpleasant after effects. It never fails and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by dealers everywhere.

The fire of Sunday night caused considerable excitement around town. Luckily there was no wind, or nothing would have been left of Coleman's smile. The boarding house was almost completely gutted, very little being saved, and what was saved from fire was damaged considerably by water. The fire started about one o'clock. The firemen, numbering twelve, arrived promptly on the scene and soon had the hose to play on the flames. The charred walls are still standing. The house was owned by H. Disney and was insured.
